GWSCPA Educational Conference
Tackling Financial Management Challenges in Extraordinary Times
May 15-16, 2012
Ronald Reagan Building and
International Trade Center (Pavilion Ballroom)
1300 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Washington, DC

Registration is now OPEN for the 11th Annual AGA-DC Chapter / GWSCPA Educational Conference!!

This year's conference, "Tackling Financial Management Challenges in Extraordinary Times" will address how financial management professionals are "doing more with less" in the face of historic budget cuts and financial issues. Participants will have the opportunity to earn up to 16 hours of CPE by attending sessions such as the following:

- Day 1 Opening Remarks & OMB Update – Danny Werfel, Controller, OMB, Office of Federal Financial Management
- Ethics Training that will focus on the latest changes in the Commonwealth of Virginia but will also address ethical dilemmas from a broader perspective. The course is designed to meet the annual ethics requirements for Virginia CPAs (and provides 2 hours of ethics CPE for Maryland and District of Columbia CPAs) – Aimee Hollenhorst, CPA
- Standards – What More is in the Works? - Attendees will learn how the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board is tackling standards setting in extraordinary times. The speaker will review how the Board's priorities are impacted by current conditions and discuss new projects on risk, leasing, and investments. An update regarding recent proposals regarding PP&E accounting as well as funds from dedicated collections will be provided as well – Wendy Payne, Executive Director, FASAB
- Overview of SSA OIG initiatives for meeting the requirements of the Improper Payment Elimination and Recovery Act. This session will highlight initiatives of the SSA OIG as the IG Community liaison and as the auditor of the estimated $25 billion in improper payments at the Social Security Administration - Gale Stone, Deputy Assistant Inspector General for Audit-Financial Systems and Operations Audits, SSA
- Day 2 Opening Remarks and GAO Update - Gene Dodaro, Comptroller General of the United States, Government Accountability Office
- CFO Career Council - Perspectives from current and former CFO's regarding their journey, experiences and the career choices they made. They will share the lessons they have learned and the way they manage to achieve mission success in the Federal CFO world of Congress, OMB, contractors and the bureaucracy
- And additional topics such as "Cutting Costs to Drive Efficiency", "Shared Services – A New Perspective", "The OIG Panel", and many more!
